

Need help after someone has died?

You don't have to face this alone.

National Bereavement
Service

When someone dies, it can feel overwhelming—both emotionally and practically.

The National Bereavement Service provides free, confidential, and impartial advice to help you understand exactly what to do next.

We are here to help you navigate the muddle:

- The Practical Steps: Clear guidance on legal requirements and what to do first.
- The Paperwork: Help with the "legal and money tasks" and when to use a professional.
- The Funeral: Advice on organising and finding the money to pay for a funeral.
- Emotional Support: Immediate support from trained advisors.
- Finding Help: If we don't have the answer, we know who does.
